

Database Administrator

Southeast La. Area Health Education Center (SELAHEC), in conjunction with the Louisiana Office of Public Health Bureau of Infectious Diseases is seeking applicants to join our Health Systems team for the critical role of Database Administrator to work in the Louisiana Office of Public Health office located in New Orleans. The successful candidate will report to the Interoperability Supervisor and be responsible for ensuring optimal database performance, integrity and security through predictable and ongoing care activities along with consistent database monitoring operations. This role will support The State of Louisiana's Electronic Laboratory Reporting (ELR) process and databases with opportunities for involvement across the Bureau of Infectious Diseases.

Candidates for the position must have a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science or related field with One to three years of experience in database administration, information technology, or database architecture. Experience in a Health Information Systems or Health Data Systems a plus. Relevant MCSA, MCSE, MTA certifications a plus.

Until filled applicants should submit a resume to SHP_Resumes@la.gov. Must Reference: Database Administrator in subject line.

EOE/AA Employer.