

Applications Developer (Databases) Health Information Systems Team

Southeast La. Area Health Education Center in conjunction with the Louisiana Office of Public Health STD/HIV/HEPATITIS Program, is seeking applicants to join our Health Information Systems team located in New Orleans for the critical role of Application Developer. The successful candidate will report to the Health Information Systems Manager and be responsible for software development, application customization, database design and management, data analysis and reporting, and system integration.

Candidates for the position must hold a Bachelor's degree or specialized training and certification indicating proficiency related to health information systems, database administration and system integration. Experience with SQL, MS Visual Studio, Git, C#, HL7, MIRTH, MS Access, ASP.NET, MS Windows Server is preferred.

No later than close of business July 7, 2023 applicants should submit a resume to SHP_Resumes@la.gov Must Reference: Information Systems Developer in subject line.

EOE/AA Employer.