

Prevention Data Supervisor

Acadiana CARES in conjunction with the Louisiana Office of Public Health STI/HIV/Hepatitis Program (SHHP), seeks a full-time Prevention Data Supervisor based in New Orleans to manage and analyze HIV/STI/HCV prevention data. Responsibilities include: develop and maintain data management systems, analyze prevention program data, and supervise data management staff.

Qualifications: Master's degree in public health, statistics, health information systems or closely related field. Background in HIV/STI/viral hepatitis, and knowledge of SAS and SQL preferred. Minimum of two years of relevant experience.

Send cover letter, resume, and three professional references to: SHP_Resumes@la.gov.

Must reference: Prevention Data Supervisor in subject line. EOE/AA Employer